Welcome to 2012! I hope and pray that each one of you had a wonderful and blessed Christmas and are looking forward with faith and eagerness to this New Year!

Thank you to everyone who had a part in both of the Christmas presentations that our Children's Choirs participated in. The Young Musicians did a beautiful job with their part in "Sing We Now of Christmas." And Cherubs and Music Makers were so well-prepared and precious in "Christmas in the Big Apple." Choir staff, you have done a stellar job this choir year, and I'm so grateful for your dedication and hard work. Parents, thanks so much for your help and support in both of these events and for your week-to-week commitment to your child being a part.

May 2012 bring you many blessings and an even closer walk with our Lord.

Blessings,
Terrie

YOUNG MUSICIANS BEGIN WORK ON MUSICAL!!

Our Young Musicians have begun work on a new musical, God of This City. This short musical has a great message about kids making a real difference in their city through a service project. Young Musicians need to be sure to be a part of this fun and inspiring experience by trying out for parts and being faithful every Wednesday. There will be opportunities for speaking parts, singing parts, and working on the sets. The musical will be presented in the evening service on

CHURCH-WIDE CREATIVE ARTS FESTIVAL

The Children's Music Ministry is sponsoring and organizing a Creative Arts Festival for the entire church family on May 6. Our curriculum this year emphasizes the role of all the arts in our service to God, so this festival will be a fitting conclusion to our choir year. If you are a creative artist of any kind and of any age, we urge you to plan on being a part of this fun event. If you know a church member who is an artist, please urge him or her to take part. By "creative artist," we mean any medium—painting, sculpture, sewing, hand-work, wood-working, photography, cooking, baking, dancing, acting, design, composing.....the list is endless! Watch for more specific info later in the spring. Make plans now and get busy being creative!!! We need you!!!
